

Housing Choices

Housing is not reimbursed by the conference. Housing is at the cost of the individual/church.

Home Stay

Some of the members of Christ First UMC have opened space in their homes for delegates to stay. Arrangements will be handled through a local organizer based on the information provided to the Conference Office through the registration process.

Hotel

We have made arrangements with two hotels that are offering special rates to our group. If you choose this option, you will make your own reservations. Mention the Alaska United Methodist Conference to get the special rate. Please see your options below.

❖ Lake Lucile Inn

1300 W. Lake Lucile Drive, Wasilla
907-373-1776

There are 20 rooms reserved. Two queen beds, one bath for $126.35/night (includes tax and fees). They have a free continental breakfast and mini fridge. Kids under 12 stay free with a paying adult, $10 each for third and fourth occupants, $20/night for pets.

❖ Grand View Inn and Suites

2900 E. Parks Highway, Wasilla
907-352-1700

www.alaskagrandview.com

There are several room options available based on your needs. A room with one queen bed, a fold out full-size couch and one bath is $160/night + 5% bed tax. A room with two queen beds and one bath is $180/night + 5% bed tax. Third and fourth person in a room has no charge. $20/night for pets.

Own Arrangements

If the three choices above are not what interests you, feel free to do your own research and make your own housing reservations.
